Kalliopé advises Neoen on the sale of a 400 MWp portfolio of solar photovoltaic assets to Verso Energy

The law firm Kalliopé has advised Neoen, the French leader in renewable energies, on the sale of a portfolio of solar photovoltaic assets of almost 400 MWp in production and under development to Verso Energy.

This strategic transaction will enable Neoen to continue optimising its portfolio of assets while strengthening its capacity to invest in new energy projects.

The sale includes solar power plants in operation as well as a portfolio of projects at an advanced stage of development.

Kalliopé advised Neoen on the corporate and financial aspects of the transaction. The corporate team consisted of Tanguy d'Everlange (partner) and Thomas Gaborit (associate). The finance team consisted of Rodolphe Cavroy (partner) and Grégoire de Bayser (associate).
